

Standard Operating Procedures - Lighting

To help save energy costs custodial staff working the afternoon shift will shut off all lights in rooms that are not being used. A walk through of your section will be conducted prior to your first coffee break, shutting off lighting as you go. If you find a room occupied you are to ask that lights be shut off when the occupant leaves. The same procedure will be followed when you break for supper.