

POLICY 382 LIBRARY LEARNING COMMONS

The Library Learning Commons (LLC) are physical and virtual learning hubs of schools where students and staff collaborate on inquiry, project/problem-based learning experiences, experimentation, and innovation to enhance critical thinking, creativity, and communication.

Library Learning Commons resources and programming will include social consideration principles of promoting diversity and human rights, incorporating diverse racial backgrounds and lived experiences, demonstrating equity, reflecting First Nations and BIPOC voices, and providing an appropriate context for complex issues all while highlighting the importance of having an awareness of personal bias.

Library Learning Commons should feature dynamic programming in order to foster innovative and inclusive opportunities to support student learning and success.
